

Confetti Fine Foods

Founded in 2018, Confetti Fine Foods ("Confetti") is a Singapore-headquartered, mission driven company that crafts artisanal gourmet snacks made from nutrient dense vegetables in exotic flavours. Confetti is revolutionizing the snacks industry by providing a plant-based snack that is delicious, fun to eat, highly nutritious, and to inspire consumers to consume more plants in a sustainable way. We recently launched our range of award-winning Michelin featured gourmet snacks after over a year of product testing and development based on market feedback. Existing investors include foodtech VCs like Big Idea Ventures, Food Ventures and Innovate 360

<http://www.confettisnacks.com>

<https://vulcanpost.com/726173/confetti-fine-foods-ugly-vegetables-healthy-snacks-singapore/>

Internship Position: Business Development and Marketing Intern

Job Description:

The Founder and CEO of this VC-backed fast-growing consumer healthy snack food company is looking for a super-intern analyst that can basically be her arms and legs and provide support on marketing, business development, operations & production, fundraising / investor relations, administrative matters

Requirements:

- Passion for consumer brands
- Business or marketing major
- all-rounder who is creative, fast learner, can multi-task, quick-thinking, independent and resourceful
- Preferably with prior experience in business development, marketing and/or worked with consumer/food companies before
- Available for 3 months or longer, part-time arrangements can be discussed
- Can start immediately

Budget: S$800 for full 5-day work week. Allowance will be adjusted accordingly for part-time arrangements

Please email CV to Betty@confettisnacks.com